

Society in Lexington.

LEXINGTON, VA., May 18.—Lee-Jackson Camp of Confederate Veterans, of Lexington, will be represented at the Confederate Veteran Reunion in Richmond May 30th to June 3d, inclusive, in large numbers. The headquarters of the camp, and also of the Rockbridge Artillery, will be established at the Mechanics' Institute, on Broad Street, opposite the City Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. A. Rose, of New York; Mrs. Williams and Miss Tina Patton, of Blacksburg, and Miss Margaret Patton, of Washington, D. C., were summoned to Lexington a few days ago by news of the serious illness of Mrs. William M. Patton. Her condition is somewhat improved now.

Mr. John C. Bowman, of New York, secretary of the Carnegie Foundation for Retired College Professors, spent last Sunday and Monday in Lexington as the guest of President George H. Denny, of Washington and Lee University. Mr. Bowman is making a tour of inspection of Southern institutions of learning.

Mr. Thomas S. White left Lexington a few days ago on a six-weeks' trip to the Southwest. He will visit his daughter, Mrs. Brown, wife of Rev. R. O. Brown, at Batesville, Miss., and his son, Dr. Hugh S. White, at El Paso, Texas. Mr. White expects to extend his trip to Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. Frank T. Glasgow is in attendance upon the meeting of the Southern Presbyterian General Assembly, now in session in Birmingham, Ala., as a delegate from Lexington Presbytery.

Rev. Dr. W. H. Milton, of Roanoke, and Rev. W. Cosby Bell, rector of R. E. Lee Memorial Episcopal Church, of Lexington, exchanged pulpits last Sunday.

Mr. Wilson B. Harrison, of Lexington, is visiting the Jamestown Exposition. He will also attend the meeting of the Virginia Funeral Directors, to be held in Norfolk.

Fork Union.

FORK UNION, VA., May 18.—Professor Julian B. Martin, principal of the Fork Union Academy since its beginning, nine years ago, has resigned the position.

The Rev. Leslie H. Walton, for several years instructor in ancient and modern languages in the academy, has accepted the position vacated by Mr. Martin.

Miss Edith L. Hatcher, who is director of the department of instrumental music of the academy, will the next session further gratify her taste for advanced scientific music by prosecuting studies under a distinguished teacher in New York.

Large crowds are attending the final exercises of the academy here this week. Many distinguished persons are present. Monday night the declamation contest will be held; on Tuesday the young ladies' concert, while on Wednesday there will be all-day exercises, with dinner on the grounds.

Miss Vera P. Sneed has returned from Lynchburg, where she attended the marriage of her brother, Russell H. Sneed.

The cadets of the Fork Union Academy will leave for the Jamestown Exposition on the 23d.

Messrs. William and I. O. Perkins, of Baltimore, are visiting their former home, near here.

Abingdon.

ABINGDON, VA., May 18.—Miss Tot Kelly, of Salem, is the guest of Miss Nellie Robertson.

Mrs. T. D. Davidson left Wednesday for Marion to attend the funeral of Mr. M. Jackson.

Mrs. Henry S. Preston, of Saltville, spent a few days this week with Miss Katie Hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Harrison have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Lancaster this week. They will spend the summer in Abingdon, as Mr. Harrison will take charge of a mission chapel in the West End.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell, of Cleburne, Texas, are here visiting their old home.

Father Jenkins, of Wytheville, was guest for several days this week of J. I. Hurt.

Mrs. T. S. Alderson, of Wise, Va., is visiting Miss Lucile Scott at the Belmont.

Mrs. Cozavina Constantine, who was Miss Mary Branch Flegg, of this place, will set sail from Europe on June 1st, and will reach home about the 12th. Mrs. Constantine has been on the continent ever since her marriage, nearly two years ago, where her husband has been taking a course in medicine. Mrs. Constantine will spend the summer here with her mother.

A graduating recital took place Friday night at Martha Washington College—that of Miss Lucile Scott, reader, and Miss Helen Smith, pianist. Miss Scott is a town girl and a talented reader; so was heard with interest by many friends. Miss Lucile Richmond and Miss Dora Blair will give their recitals as graduates in piano at S. J. Institute Saturday night.

BIT OF WIRE FATAL.
Lad Stuck It in His Foot and Dies of Lockjaw.

DURHAM, N. C., May 18.—John Blackwell, the ten-year-old son of Mr. J. W. Blackwell, of this city, died this evening after a brief illness from lockjaw. The little fellow contracted the deadly disease as the result of sticking a piece of wire in his foot. A few days after the accident it seemed that he was improving and he was able to walk around, but later his foot became irritated with the fatal result. He was well known and his death is deeply mourned.

MISS HILDA NELSON.

This accomplished daughter of Captain and Mrs. D. M. Nelson, of West Urbann, Middlesex county, Va., who was recently awarded a scholarship in the Randolph-Macon's Woman's College, at Lynchburg, Va., is eighteen years of age. She attended for four years the Southern Seminary at Buena Vista, Va., under the presidency of Rev. E. H. Rowe, where she graduated in education and the English branches, being especially proficient in the first named study. She is at present a student at the Woman's College, Lynchburg, Va., where she is making a good record. The award recently of scholarship in this famous institution for women to Miss Nelson by the Norfolk College for Ladies was a well merited compliment to an ambitious and promising young lady, who is destined to make her mark in the world. Miss Nelson is a member of the Methodist Church at Urbann, Va. She is quiet and gentle in manner, sweet spirited in disposition, and is a blonde.

WINSTON BABY WHO IS HEIR TO MILLIONS

RICHARD JOSHUA REYNOLDS, JR.

The accompanying picture represents Richard Joshua Reynolds, Jr., who is sole heir to the millions in money and property owned by his father, Richard Joshua Reynolds, Sr., the noted tobaccoist of Winston, N. C. The little man was six months old when this picture was taken. The little boy's mother was Miss Katherine Smith, who was graduated from Sullins College, Bristol, Va., a year or two before her marriage with Mr. Reynolds. After her graduation she became stenographer and secretary to Mr. Reynolds in his Winston office, and it was here that the courtship sprang up which resulted in their marriage.
